

3 BUYERS MISTAKES

1 shopping price

WHEN YOU SHOULD BE SHOPPING COVERAGE.

Are you sure that's enough coverage on your home or auto? Is the flood water that came into your home a covered loss? What about the policy you needed to have, but don't, because you thought it was too much? The coverages you are needing should be the number one priority when looking for insurance.

We are your trusted advisors. We take the time to know what your situation is and we come alongside of you to put in place the exact coverages you need. The truth is, you don't know what coverages you need without consulting a trusted advisor to guide you.

2 not reviewing

YOUR COVERAGES ANNUALLY.

You absolutely cannot rely on your insurance agent to have the right coverages in place if your life situation has changed. Marriage, divorce, adding a youthful driver to your policy, a change in household income, starting a home-based business, or a new job are just a few of the reasons you, as the insured, need to make sure your agent is aware of your life changes. These life changes can create huge problems down the road if your agent is not made aware.

3 not insuring

YOUR MOST IMPORTANT ASSET. YOUR INCOME

Life insurance and long-term disability insurance is the foundation to any financial plan. This is the income replacement your family is counting on should something untimely happen to you. No income means no way to meet even your most basic needs, much less, the dreams you have for your family.